

PAL Button In Home Wireless

No landline needed

Description

If you do not have a landline telephone, then the PAL Button Wireless In Home is the medical alarm system for you. Designed with your protection and comfort in mind, this unit is quick and easy to install in any location where AT&T 3G network is available.

The PAL Button Wireless In Home system is a two part system consisting of the small PAL Button (also known as the panic transmitter) and the dynamic base unit

The PAL Button* is 100% waterproof and can be worn as a neck pendant or bracelet.

The base unit has acts as a diagnostic computer* automatically monitoring its built in rechargeable battery The base unit is also equipped with built- in microphone / speaker that provides optimal sound quality and clear two-way voice communication between you and the Monitoring Center.

As always, we promise personalized attention and consistency in our products and services